CARROLL G. PARKS

PAUL H. SHOVER

Trexler's sixth year was marked by many victories as eleven hundred of you "did your thing." As I watched you day after day, I was happy to see you perform victory after victory as you grew in the caliber of your thoughts, your actions, and your words. Daily many of you tried to live up the Trexler motto: "Being Personally Responsible."

Many of you plodded along systematically to become the students you were really meant to be: you studied your lessons well, you treated your fellow pupils and your teachers with great respect; you had high regard for the property and rights of others; and you learned to show a heart-felt gratitude to your parents and others in authority.

To all the members of the Class of 1973, I extend well wishes for a happy and a great future in high school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the ninth grade class of Trexler Junior High School, in the Year of the Bull, one thousand, nine hundred, seventy three, hereby declare the following to be a Last Will and Testament:

To D.A.D. ...we leave his daughters.
To any ready, willing and able 8th grader ...we leave the brainwracking, tedious and unbearable but rewarding task - the production of the Trexennial.
To Ms. Kratzer ...we leave a Guy.
To Miss Raber ...we leave a brand new Hoover portable model#65.
To Mrs. Strauss ...we leave a "Principal's Pass - Free" Library.
To Mrs. Aungst ...we leave the best ninth grade choir (whichever one that was).
To Miss Zanchettin ...we leave her Wednesday pottery class.
To Mrs. Sepsik ...we leave our purses and our locks.
To Mr. Wagner ...we leave next year's squirrels, bunnies and robins.
To Mr. Gasdaska ...we leave a microscope with high power objective in place.
To some "disserving" 8th grader ...Teri Philips leaves Kate.
To any 8th grade photographer ...Paul Schoff leaves a broken Nikkomat Camera.
To the up coming clique...we leave a shoulder to cry on, pseudosophisication, and good luck.
To the 7th and 8th grade ...we leave hope of a 5th period locker break.
To Mr. Maron ...we leave our baby.
To Mr. Shover ...we leave a P.L.P.
To Mr. Parks ...we leave Trexler Junior High School, to have and to hold, to love and to cherish, till death do you part.
