LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the ninth grade class of Trexler Junior High School, in the year of our Lord, One thousand, nine hundred, seventy-one, being of sound mind (most of us anyway) hereby declare the following to be a Last Will and Testament:

1. The Student Council Officers and the Ninth Grade Class Officers pass on their school duties to their successors.
2. All Ninth Grade choir, band, orchestra, and gym members leave their time and efforts put into their many enjoyable programs to all future productions hereafter at Trexler.
3. To Mr. Shover we leave his cafeteria clean-up rag.
4. To the Talewagger we leave Mr. Kuebler.
5. To Mr. Burrows we leave the cafeteria microphone.
6. To Mr. Gasdaska we leave a punctured basketball to remind him of his team.
7. To Mr. Maron we leave an "old hat and some sour grapes."
8. To an eighth grader I leave my auditorium seat: E-102.
9. To Mr. Ayers we leave an extra pocket for his reminders.
10. Bill Fetterman leaves his silent movies to next year's assembly program.
11. To Mr. Bartges we leave a four jaw independent chuck key.
12. To Mr. Allen we leave a book of crossword puzzles.
13. Andy Stephens leaves to some deserving eighth grader his green sneakers with yellow and purple laces.
14. Patty Kern leaves behind her broken locker.
15. Mike Haney donates his variety of familiar animal calls to anyone of the future ninth grade class who is willing to listen and learn.
16. Dave Peifley wills his Algebra book to any eighth grader who would like to tackle Mr. Beblavy's unsolvable problems.
17. Debbie Kline leaves behind her musical scores to anyone who has vocal cords strong enough to sustain the strain.
18. To Mr. Wagner we leave!

In witness thereof Collingsworth B. Smythe III and Mortimer "Wolfgang" Snurd, we hand this will and testament into the hands of the pupils who will take our places in September, 1971.
