Principal's Message

TREXLERITES . . .

James A. Garfield, a president of the United States stated that a log with a student on one end and Mark Hopkins, his teacher, on the other end was his ideal school. The point in it all is that personal contact and direct interest in the individual student by a teacher of high character is the main thing in any school.

As I see it, your teachers at Trexler can best be characterized by the following thought:

A builder builded a temple;
He wrought with care and skill:--
Pillars and groins and arches
Were fashioned to meet his will:
And men when they saw its beauty:
"It shall never know decay.
Great is thy skill, O builder.
Thy fame shall endure for aye."

A teacher builded a temple;
She wrought with skill and care;--
Forming each pillar with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None saw the unceasing effort;
None knew of the marvelous play;
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple:--
Crumbled into the dust,--
Pillar and groin and arches
Food for consuming rust;
But the temple the teacher builded
Shall endure while the ages roll;--
For that beautiful, unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

Asst. Principal's Message

As we look back on this past school year, we are filled with mixed emotions. We are happy that vacation time has finally arrived. Now we can put the books away temporarily and have some fun. Yet, this is also a sad time. For now, our junior high school years are completed. The athletic contests, dances, and classes now become lingering memories.

Yet, now is the time to do some serious soul searching. You have grown up in a world that is seemingly full of contradictions. You have read about and have been told about patriotism. But you have seen the conflict over the meaning of patriotism during the Vietnam War. You have been taught to have respect for our leaders and to be honest, but you have seen the emergence of the Watergate controversy and the downfall of a national leader. You have learned that America is a land of plenty, but you have seen the various shortages in resources and goods, and other supplies.

Indeed, one can become quite perplexed in thinking about the future. However, we have endured in the past and we will endure in the future. This shall be done through you, the leaders of tomorrow.

Therefore, as you prepare yourselves for the day you assume the torch of leadership, I would hope you keep some of the following in mind. The road to success is often impeded with many obstacles. Be determined and willing to persevere. Be willing to bounce back from defeat, for defeats will be numerous on the path of life. Set your goals high, using judgment and reason as your guide. Develop the moral strength which will help you do what is right, rather than what is expedient. And above all, have faith in God, for He shall sustain you in times of despair, and He will rejoice with you in times of plenty.

In conclusion, I wish the ninth grade class of 1975 the best of health and happiness in the future years of life.

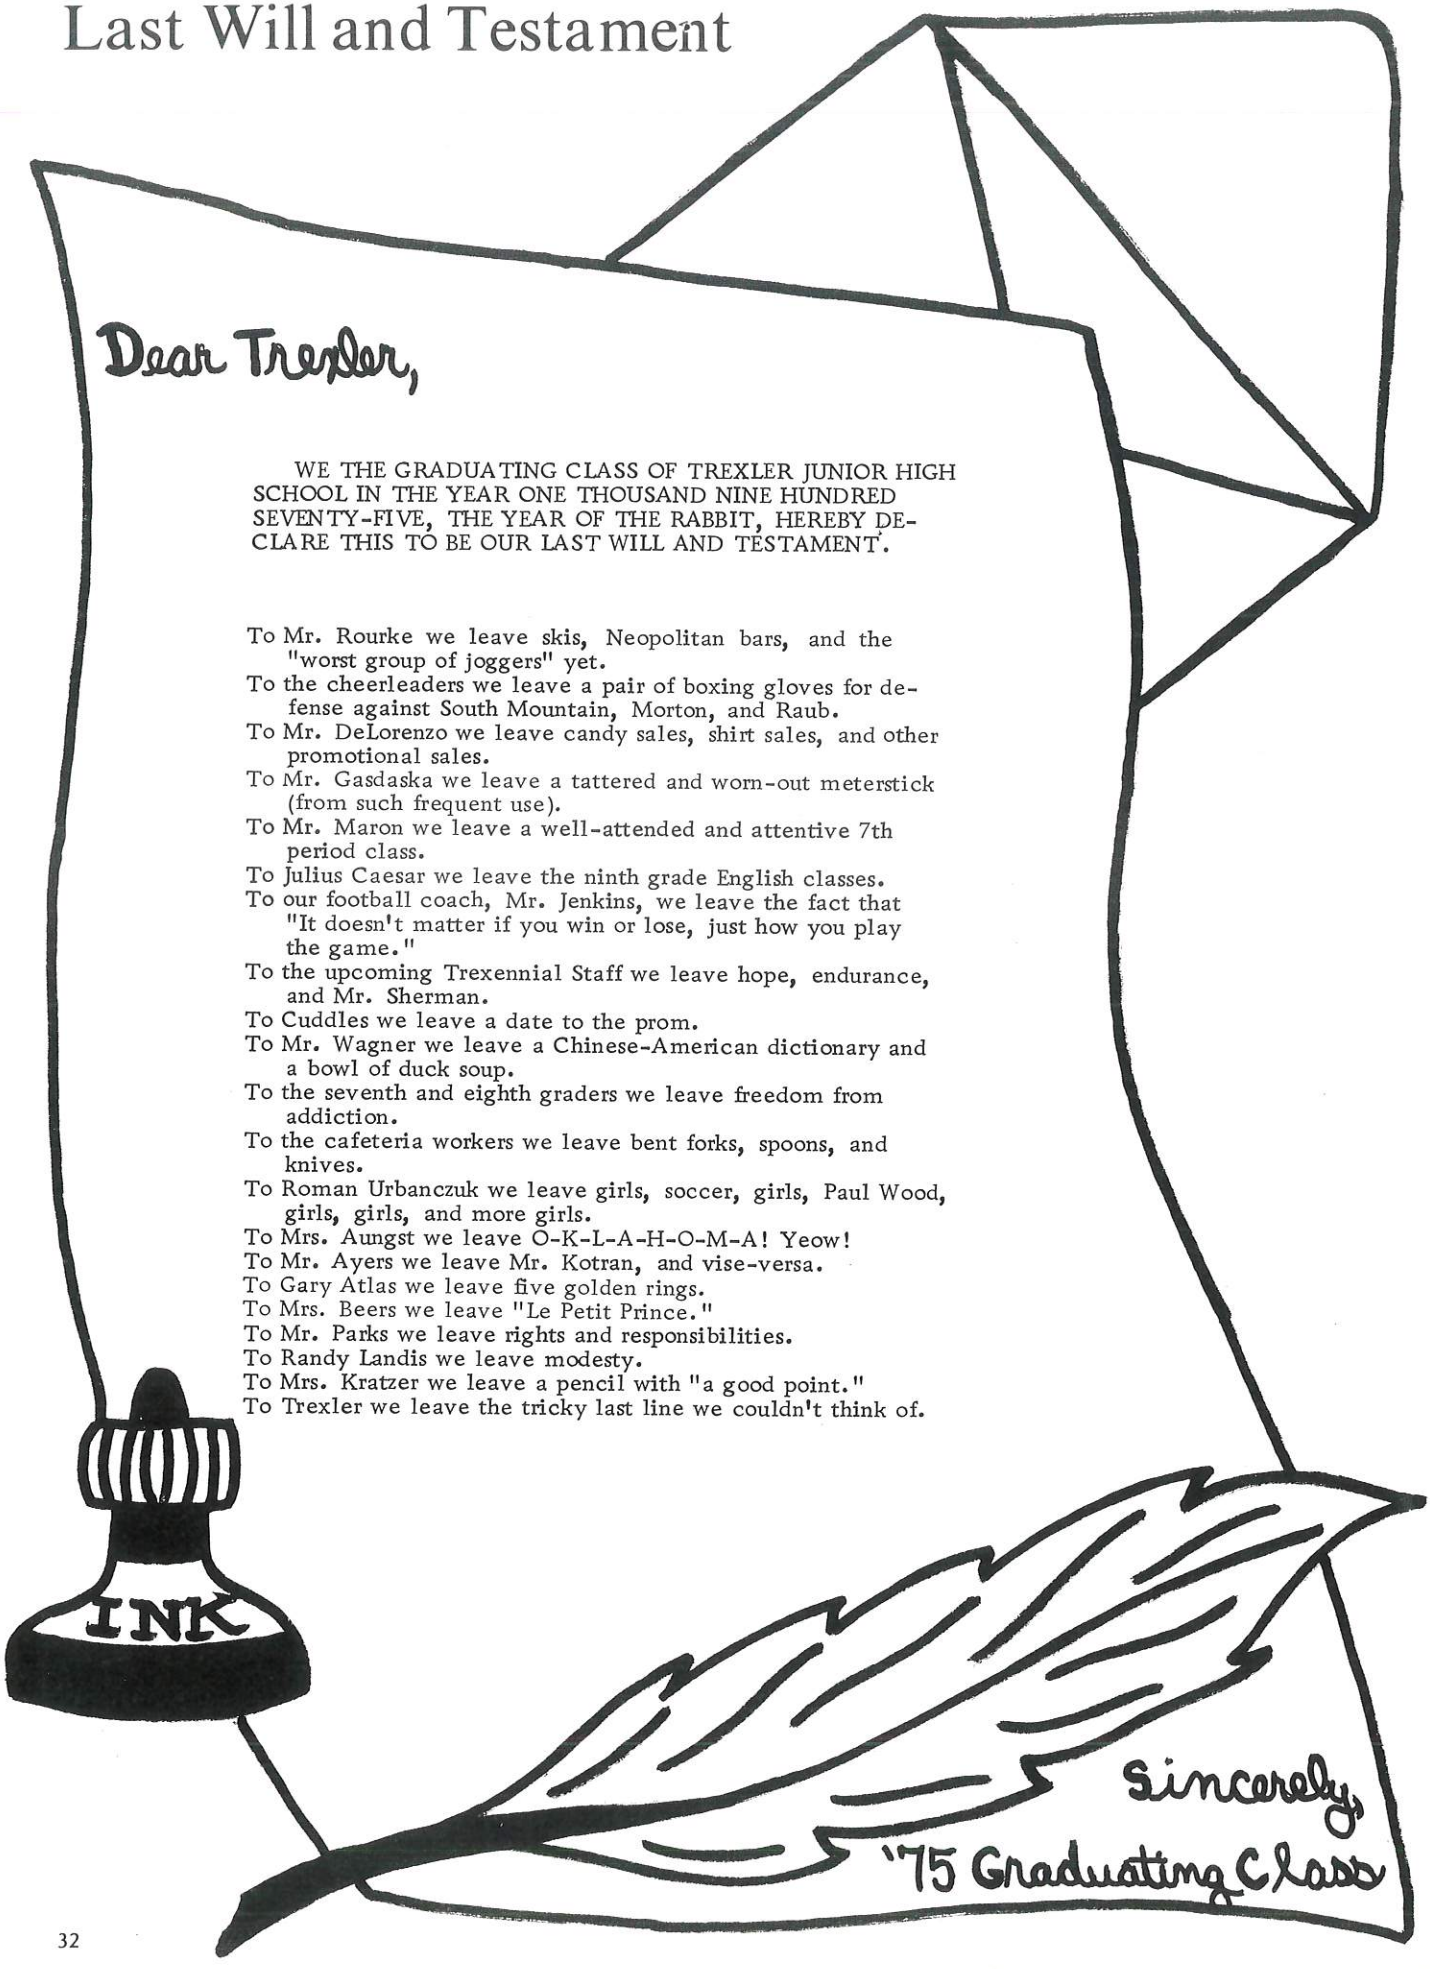
Last Will and Testament



Dear Trexler,

WE THE GRADUATING CLASS OF TREXLER JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL IN THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED SEVENTY-FIVE, THE YEAR OF THE RABBIT, HEREBY DECLARE THIS TO BE OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

To Mr. Rourke we leave skis, Neopolitan bars, and the "worst group of joggers" yet.
To the cheerleaders we leave a pair of boxing gloves for defense against South Mountain, Morton, and Raub.
To Mr. DeLorenzo we leave candy sales, shirt sales, and other promotional sales.
To Mr. Gasdaska we leave a tattered and worn-out meterstick (from such frequent use).
To Mr. Maron we leave a well-attended and attentive 7th period class.
To Julius Caesar we leave the ninth grade English classes.
To our football coach, Mr. Jenkins, we leave the fact that "It doesn't matter if you win or lose, just how you play the game."
To the upcoming Trexennial Staff we leave hope, endurance, and Mr. Sherman.
To Cuddles we leave a date to the prom.
To Mr. Wagner we leave a Chinese-American dictionary and a bowl of duck soup.
To the seventh and eighth graders we leave freedom from addiction.
To the cafeteria workers we leave bent forks, spoons, and knives.
To Roman Urbanczuk we leave girls, soccer, girls, Paul Wood, girls, girls, and more girls.
To Mrs. Aungst we leave O-K-L-A-H-O-M-A! Yeow!
To Mr. Ayers we leave Mr. Kotran, and vise-versa.
To Gary Atlas we leave five golden rings.
To Mrs. Beers we leave "Le Petit Prince."
To Mr. Parks we leave rights and responsibilities.
To Randy Landis we leave modesty.
To Mrs. Kratzer we leave a pencil with "a good point."
To Trexler we leave the tricky last line we couldn't think of.

INK

Sincerely,
'75 Graduating Class
