In Memoriam

A member of the faculty at Trexler since it first opened, Mr. Donald Hausman loved children and teaching. He taught English and social studies and always enjoyed participating in school activities. When others forgot or couldn't be bothered, Mr. Hausman always dressed in red and white for color day - an indication of his loyalty and devotion to Trexler.

A man of many talents, Mr. Hausman played piano and organ for school functions as well as for many local organizations and area night spots. He also taught private piano and organ lessons. Known throughout the community through his church music and charitable activities, he was a council member of St. John's Lutheran Church and president of both the Wise Men's Club and Schoolmens' Club.

A devoted family man, Mr. Hausman lived his Christian beliefs in both public and private life. He and his wife Betty raised four sons who all are now active in community services, and the family shared many common interests throughout the years.

We at Trexler dedicate this 1980 Trexennial to the memory of Mr. Hausman. He is missed very much.

Definitely a 10!

Was I supposed to jump?

What an improvement!

Nervous is why . . .

Say, cheese!
